Quite often, people confuse strategy and tactics and think the two terms are interchangeable in strategic planning, but they're not.
According to strategy guru Michael Porter, "Competitive strategy is about being different. It means deliberately choosing a different set of activities to deliver a unique mix of value."

Strategy and tactics work together as means to an end. If your strategy is to climb a mountain, one key component of your strategy might be to decide which side of the mountain you should climb. Your tactics would be the gear you'd buy, who you'd bring with you, your complete trip plan, how long it would take to get there, what season you'd go in, and so on.

differences between tactics and strategy: Tactics are the properly organized actions that help to achieve a certain end. The strategy is the integrated plan that ensures the achievement of organization objectives. Tactics is a subset of strategy, i.e. without the strategy, tactics can do nothing. Tactics try to find out the methods through which strategy can be implemented.
